(3)(a) The custodian shall deny the right of inspection of the following records, unless otherwise provided by law; except that any of the following records, other than letters of reference concerning employment, licensing, or issuance of permits, shall be available to the person in interest under this subsection (3):

(IX) Names, addresses, telephone numbers and personal financial information of past or present users of public utilities, public facilities or recreational or cultural services that are owned and operated by the state, its agencies, institutions, or political subdivisions; except that nothing in this paragraph shall prohibit the custodian of records from transmitting such data to any agent of an investigative branch of a federal agency or any criminal justice agency as defined in section 24-72-302(3) that makes a request to the custodian to inspect such records and who asserts that the request for information is reasonable related to an investigation within the scope of the agency's authority and duties. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to prohibit the publication of such information in an aggregate or statistical form so classified as to prevent the identification, location, or habits of individuals.
